

HARNESS RACING TO BE CONTINUED AT ROCKVILLE FAIR

Racing Events, However,
Will Be Doubled and Prizes Increased.

ROCKVILLE, Md., May 25.—A proposition to discontinue harness races at the Rockville fair did not meet with the approval of the fair directors and at a meeting held here a day or two ago it was decided to provide trotting and pacing races for the fair this year, as usual. This class of racing, however, will be confined to two events each day of the fair, but the number of running races will be increased. The directors have appropriated $2,500 for race premiums, and $2,200 for prizes for the horse show to be held in connection with the fair. The fair will be held this year on August 27, 28, 29, and 30.

The will of Miss Elizabeth E. Tyson, who died recently at her home in Clary district, this county, has been filed in the orphans' court at this place. It disposes of an estate valued at about $175,000 and names a Baltimore Trust Company as executor. The bulk of the estate is left to Mrs. Martha Tyson Hopkins, widow of Samuel W. Hopkins, and at her death to go to her children. A large number of bequests ranging in amounts from $100 to $1,000 are made.

Miss Lillie P. Talley, aged eighteen, of Curlew, Va., and Walker George Davenport, aged twenty-nine, of Massapon, Va., were married in Rockville Thursday morning by the Rev. F. M. Richardson, pastor of the M. E. church South, at the home of the minister.

Funeral services for Robert S. Hilton, who died at his home at Clarksburg, this county, following an illness of only a few days, were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon, being conducted by Thomas Davis, pastor of the Clarksburg Methodist Church. Burial was in the Methodist cemetery. The pallbearers were Joseph T. White, James J. James, James D. Dorsey Warfield, Thomas Miles, and Bernard H. Gardner.

This year's graduates of the Gaitersburg High School are Misses Carrie Browning and Alice Spates and Earle Kanode and Nathan White. The commencement exercises will be held in Masonic Hall, Gaitersburg, next Wednesday evening.

John W. Gaiter, one of the county's oldest and best-known citizens, died a few days ago at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Mulligan, near Gaitersburg, aged eighty-seven years. He had been in failing health a long while. The funeral was held yesterday from the Southern Methodist Church at Gaitersburg, interment being in the cemetery near the church.

Druggists See Work At Experimental Farm

Nearly two score members of the Washington branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association, druggists and physicians, interested in the work of the Government in the introduction and growing of plants of medicinal value in the United States, met at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Arlington experimental farm of the Department of Agriculture, to inspect the plans and the work of Dr. Rodney True, in charge of investigations.

College Students Give Shakespeare Play

Commencement exercises of the Washington College were inaugurated last night with the presentation of the Shakespeare play, "Much Ado About Nothing," by the pupils of the institution. The play was given in the college auditorium.

The Rev. Earle Wilfey, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates in the college chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Those in last night's play were the Misses Katherine Horton, Edith Sloan, Gladys Gilbertson, Iva Gilbertson, Millicent Cowan, Electa Storer, Hattie Sibby, Willie Williamson, Constance Collins, Jean Nicol, Zita Hays, Anne Sibby, Florence Bear, Nanette Brundage, Jean Menefee, Rose Owen McDavid, and Edith Shelby.

Little Falls Youth Shot From Ambush

As he was leaving the home of a friend near the Little Falls station, on the Conduit road, last night, Harry Ardinger, sixteen years old, was shot by some unknown person in the left leg just above the knee. He was taken to the hospital, where he was treated, but the bullet removed at 10 o'clock this morning. Ardinger, however, refused to remain in the hospital. His home is near Little Falls station. The police of the Seventh precinct are investigating.

BLANK AND WIFE RUN DOWN BOY AND GIRL WITH MOTOR

Triangle Shirt Waist Factory Owner's Automobile
Figures in Mishaps.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The old trick of the dramatist making one story out of several was enacted in real life last night when one automobile accident in a family uncovered a second. One victim is seriously injured and may die.

Max Blank, one of the proprietors of the Triangle Waist Company, where 147 lives were lost at a fire, was coming from his home, 240 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, yesterday morning in his automobile.

At Atlantic and Flatbush avenue the car, driven by Chauncey Wellman, his chauffeur, skidded. It struck Max Blank, who was in the car, and he was thrown out. He was seriously injured and may die.

Blank and the chauffeur took the boy to a drug store and then to his home. They say there was no policeman about and the boy was not seriously hurt. Blank continued on his way.

"Don't say anything about this to Mrs. Blank. She has trouble enough," said Blank to the chauffeur.

"All right, sir," said the chauffeur, and returned home with the car.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Blank was in the car, and at Beverly road and East Third street it ran into Jessie Levy, six years old, who lives nearby. Mrs. Blank took the little girl to the Coney Island Hospital. The child had a fracture of the skull and of the thigh. The facts were reported to the police, who investigated, decided it was an accident and made no arrest.

"Don't say anything about this to Mr. Blank. It will only worry him," said Mrs. Blank.

"Yes, ma'am," said the chauffeur. Reporters called at the Blank home last night to learn of the accident in which Mrs. Blank figured. They asked for Mrs. Blank.

"No, I am not at home," said Mrs. Blank before her wife could speak. "But the boy isn't hurt."

"But we understand it was a little girl," said a reporter, "and the police say Mrs. Blank was in the car."

"No," said Mr. Blank, who then told his story. Then Mrs. Blank gave her experience, while Mr. Blank looked on amazed.

At the hospital last evening it was said the injured child had a chance of recovery.

CLASS OPPOSED TO THE SANITARY KISS

Old-fashioned Kind Best, Northwestern Students Decide.

CHICAGO, May 25.—The senior class of the Northwestern University, took a secret vote today for or against the "sanitary kiss." The vote was almost unanimous against it. The class numbered 170 men and 113 girls. Secretary Druggie, of the class, said:

"This means that we consider the anti-germ kiss and sanitary kiss advocated by physicians to be 'bunk.' The class believes in kissing in the old-fashioned way. Why, the doctors would cut all the favor out of occlusion and leave a kiss as dry and mechanical as a clinic."

The girls took a vote on "fussing," the college for "spooning." The boys had a vote on "fussing." The class will be graduated within a few days and have but a short time to do any college "fussing."

No Marked Change In Weather Expected

No decided change in temperature for the next day or two is predicted by the Weather Bureau. This means, if the prognostication is correct, that the ideal summer weather of today will continue until tomorrow evening at least.

Tonight a slight drop in the mercury is expected. At 10:30 o'clock this morning the clock in front of the Munsey building registered 81 degrees.

Discuss Car Service.

Those who oppose through street car service from Tenleytown to the Union Station were scored by E. L. Stone last night at a meeting of the Cleveland Park Community and Teachers' Association at the John Eaton School. The change of cars now required was objected to by Mr. Stone as an inadequate provision for taking care of the traffic.

Dr. Heiberger Better.

Dr. Ida Heiberger, of the Concord apartment house, who was bruised, but not seriously hurt, in a carriage accident at Fourteenth and H streets last night, was better yesterday afternoon, will probably leave the George Washington University Hospital late this afternoon. The car struck the rear of Dr. Heiberger's carriage, breaking off one of the wheels, but the physician was not thrown out.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS MAY CARRY FIGHTS TO BIG CONVENTION

Harmon Leaders Say They Are Prepared to Appeal to Credentials Committee.

With the District Democratic primaries still two days off, two cents of the District delegation to the Baltimore convention are practically certain, and there is a possibility of others. Notice has been served by the Harmon leaders that they are prepared to carry a contest to the credentials committee of the national convention, unless their demands are met by the central committee. The central committee is not giving an inch.

Similar notice has been given by the Durr, Carr-Benton faction. This faction obtained a "dog-fall" on contests in the past two campaigns, and they are hoping for the same result.

With the Newman faction deprived of the use of the Champ Clark emblem and photograph, they, too, may contest. The Newman faction is not giving an inch. No injunction suit against the central committee, as threatened by Mr. Newman, has yet been filed.

Judges and clerks for the various polling places in the two districts were decided by the central committee last night, but they will not be made public until tomorrow, one day before the primary.

The central committee will meet Monday night in Masonic temple to receive the primary from the various precincts. The Champ Clark Democratic Club held its dual pre-convention rally in old Masonic temple last night. Congressman Rube, former Congressman Lafayette Pence, Kyle R. Price, Fulton R. Jordan, and Colby were the speakers. The Newman faction was bitterly assailed for an alleged effort to "scramble upon the band wagon."

INDICTMENT AGAINST TRIO IS DISMISSED

L. E. Dodge, S. C. Weaver, and
H. G. Hopkins Win In Court.

With the consent of the court an indictment against Lawrence E. Dodge, Stephen C. Weaver and Herbert C. Hopkins, charging them with conspiracy to defraud, has been dismissed by United States Attorney Clarence R. Wilson at the request of parties affected.

The indictment, which was returned April 4, 1910, sets forth that the alleged conspiracy was against Dr. Thomas V. Hammond, who was divested of security on a note for $6,000, it was claimed. It was charged that Dodge conveyed to Weaver the security in question, but that William D. Hoover, one of the trustees, resigned rather than sign a release of the trust without seeing the cancelled note.

Following the resignation of Mr. Hoover, it was alleged, the whole trusteeship was vested in Ira W. Hopkins, and that the three defendants conspired to execute the release of the trust. Dodge was charged with the conspiracy charged against them. It was further charged that two new notes for $1,500 and the other for $5,000, were then placed on the property involved in the transaction, and that Dodge had conspired to defraud.

There was no objection to the District Attorney's entering a non suit.

Services in Rotunda.

In accordance with the custom that has existed for a number of years, Lincoln Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will hold memorial services before the Lincoln statue in the rotunda of the Capitol tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Congressman James M. Graham of Illinois, will be the orator of the day. Patriotic societies of the District are urged to attend.

BABY'S HEAD SORE ITCHED AND BURNED

Hair Most All Came Out. Could Not
Get Anything to Heal. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Hair
Began to Come Back. Now Well.

Alum Ridge, Va.—"My baby was about two months old when his head got sore. It first came as hard white lumps, and they seemed to itch and burn. His head was awfully sore, and his hair most all came out. I did not get a night's rest while it was so bad. The hard lumps seemed to get sore and would run. I could not get anything to heal them until I got a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them and his head began to get better, so I bought some more Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed his head every night with Cuticura Soap before retiring and after letting it dry I applied the Cuticura Ointment. The runny sores began to scab over and peel off, and the baby's hair began to come back and now his head is sound and well. The child had real pretty hair. I feel that I cannot praise Cuticura Soap and Ointment enough." (Signed) Mrs. E. M. Reed, Nov. 27, 1911.

HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS

Itching Scalp and Dandruff. Cured Entirely.
51 Willow Ter., Hoboken, N. J.—"I was troubled with a very itching scalp and dandruff, and my hair came out in handfuls. There were scales on the scalp and it itched very, very badly. I was troubled like that about four months, when I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In a few months they had cured me entirely. My hair is now real thick and glossy." (Signed) Mrs. A. Vogel, Nov. 1911.

SHERMAN LEAVES CAPITAL HURRIEDLY FOR TRIP TO CHICAGO

Much Mystery in Vice President's Departure—Talk
of Dark Horse.

Just what is the mission of Vice President Sherman to Chicago is the subject of much wonderment in political quarters today.

At 3:45 yesterday afternoon the Vice President, without shouting his intentions from the house tops, caught a fast train for Chicago and his secretary gave it out that it was "private business." At first, in fact, it was given out he had gone to Utica, but later admitted he had gone to Chicago.

That "Sunny Jim" has hurried to the Windy City for the purpose of holding an important political conference bearing on the battle of the old guard to beat Roosevelt at any cost, is the talk about the capital.

One story was that he had gone to see Robert Todd Lincoln, son of the martyred President, and former Secretary of War, and that a movement was on to take up with him as the third man, to sidetrack Taft, and to center much of the Taft strength as possible on him.

This story, however interesting it is, finds little credence. The notion that the Vice President is taking a big part in the movement for a third man, however, finds much support.

The Senate honoree Senator Lodge is selecting him as the president pro tempore for today. Vice President Sherman will be back Sunday.

Motherhood

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. In Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information.
